FILMPHILIPPINES
INCENTIVES
FILM DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL OF THE PHILIPPINES

The Film Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP) through its FilmPhilippines Office (FPO) introduced the ASEAN Co-production Fund (ACOF) to support partnership between ASEAN countries and the Philippines, to enhance the Filipino cast and crew, and to encourage the ASEAN film industry to thrive in the global film markets and festivals.

ACOF also supports FPO's missions to promote the Philippines as a filming destination and propose a one-stop-shop services desk for foreign and local audiovisual productions aiming to film in the Philippines.

ACOF is a selective fund that will support accepted project/s from USD 50,000 up to USD 150,000

DISCLAIMER

1. FilmPhilippines may decline to accept and/or reject an application if it does not follow and/or comply with these Guidelines. These Guidelines are designed to be read in conjunction with the relevant application form. As the guidelines and application form are subject to changes and updates, the applicant should ensure that he/she has the most current version of these documents by checking at <http://www.filmphilippines.com/asean-co-production-fund-acof> prior to submitting his/her application.
2. All the information provided by the applicant producer will be held by the FPO on a strictly commercial-in-confidence basis. Information will only be provided to the Committee, Philippine government and an independent film production consultant, if necessary.
3. Applicant producers should also contact FPO early, before production commences, to discuss their project and to explore details surrounding FPI. Contact details for FP are listed further.
4. ASEAN Co-Production Fund is a selective (NOT ASSURED or AUTOMATIC) awarded fund that is subject to strict evaluation and audit of qualified expenses.
5. All applications are made at the applicant's own risk. The FDCP is not liable for any loss, damage, or costs arising directly or indirectly from the application process, the FDCP's decision to refuse the project, or from dealing with the application in any manner.

ELIGIBILITY

1. ELIGIBLE PROJECTS

- Feature films (more than eighty (80) min) : live action, IMAX, documentary, animation.
- The project can be initiated by the ASEAN (excluding the Philippines) or the Filipino production company.
- The project must have a Director of ASEAN nationality (including the Philippines).
- The Philippine production company must have a minimum co-production share of ten percent (10%) of the project.
- The project is not eligible if it has already received another grant from the FDCP: FLIP, ICOF or ACOF. However, if the project was rejected, it can apply to one of the other FPI.
- A project cannot apply to several funds at the same time.

2. ELIGIBLE CONTENTS

- Any genre, except for pornography.
- The project must not contain issues insulting, offensive and/or portraying the Philippines in a negative light as well as threaten the national security.
- The project must not promote violence.

3. ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES

- Project wholly or partly made in the Philippines for development, pre-production, production (studio, on set shootings) and/or postproduction (animation, visual effect, 3D conversion, editing, music and scoring, sound design, editing and mixing, voice overs, color grading...).
- At least 50% (fifty) of the fund amount must be spent in the Philippines, (see section 14).

4. ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

A company organized and registered as a business in the Philippines may apply for the ACOF, and said company must be a production company accredited by the FDCP NR in a co-production with an ASEAN production company.

The project can be initiated by the ASEAN or the Filipino production company.

The list of the Filipino production companies accredited by the FDCP NR are listed: <http://www.filmphilippines.com/directory>

*List of the ASEAN countries as per March 2020: Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Brunei Darussalam, Vietnam, Lao PDR, Myanmar, Cambodia.

PROVISIONAL APPLICATION PROCESS

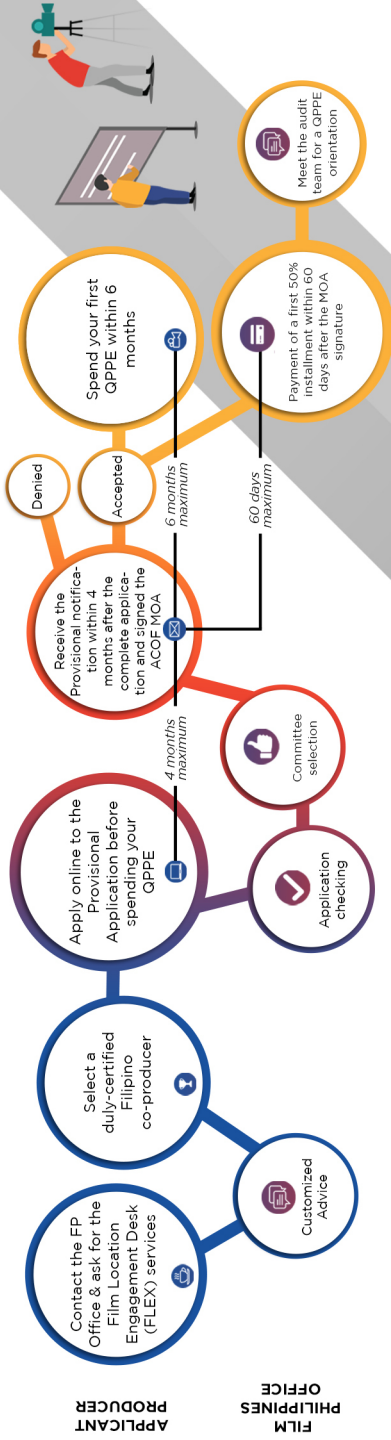

1. Applicant producers should contact the FPO early to discuss their project and to explore details surrounding ACOF. As part of the ACOF application, the project can also avail of the Film Location Engagement Desk at <http://www.filmphilippines.com/film-now/film-location-engagement-desk-flex>
2. Before spending any QPPE in the Philippines, applicants must fill out and submit the ACOF Provisional Application Form and all required documents at <http://www.filmphilippines.com/asean-co-production-fund-acof-apply-now>
3. The FPO will verify all the documents and may ask the applicant to provide further supporting documents.
4. After confirming the completion of the application, the FPO will then submit your project to one of the Committee considerations, held three (3) times per year.
5. The Committee may ask the applicant to provide further supporting documents, should the Committee decide that the submitted documents contain inadequate details.
6. The applicant will be notified of the Committee decision after the Deliberation meeting. He/She will receive either a rejection letter with arguments or an approval letter indicating the approved amount of the grant/fund.
7. Upon approval, the applicant will attend a meeting with the FPI and FDCP Audit and Collection Unit for a QPPE orientation and to discuss the project. The applicant will sign the ACOF Memorandum of Agreement. After securing all signatures in the ACOF Memorandum of Agreement, the applicant producer will receive the first fifty percent (50%) down payment of the fund, the balance of fifty percent (50%) after the approval of the Final Verification Process.
8. Once the incentive Committee has approved the application, the first QPPE must be spent within six (6) months. Should there be a delay, the applicant must notify the Committee and give clear and reasonable explanations for the delay.

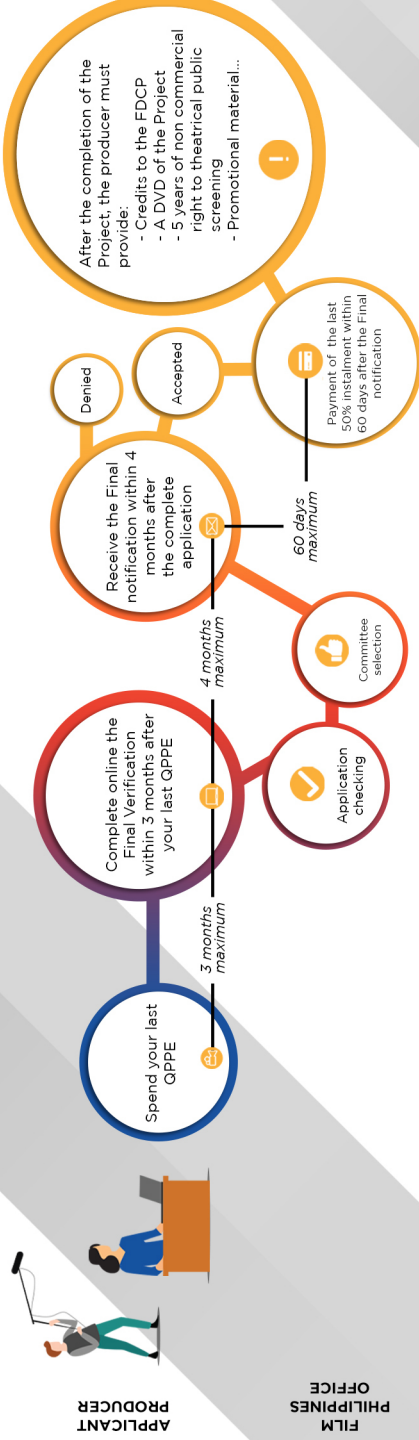

FINAL VERIFICATION PROCESS

1. Three (3) months maximum after completion of the project, the applicant company must submit the ACOF Final Verification form and all required documents at <http://www.filmphilippines.com/asean-co-production-fund-acof-apply-now>
2. The FPO will verify all the documents and may ask the applicant to provide further supporting documents, if the submitted documents contain inadequate details.
3. After confirming the completion of the application, the FPO will then submit the project to the administrative department for audit and to one of the Committee considerations, held three (3) times per year.
4. The Committee and the administrative department may ask the applicant to provide further supporting documents, should they decide that the submitted documents contain inadequate details.
5. The applicant will be notified of the Committee's final decision within four (4) months after the submission of the Complete Final Verification Application. If approved, the applicant will receive the Final Notification indicating that the remaining fifty percent (50%) of the fund is due and payable within the next two (2) months.

PROJECT EVALUATION

1. The project will be evaluated on the following:
 - Degree to which the work promotes the ASEAN culture & territory.
 - Degree to which the work contributes to the ASEAN film industry.
 - Degree to which a Filipino producer participates in the creative production of the work.
 - The global quality of the project.
 - The financial strength and stability of the project.
 - The international distribution potential through festival, theatrical/VOD release and platform in order to reach international audiences.
2. When necessary, FPO will seek the advice of one or more independent film production consultants on a strictly commercial-in-confidence basis to provide an independent assessment on the expenditures and budget of the project.
3. One committee will evaluate all FPI applications.
4. The applicant producer will be notified of the Committee decision after one of the Committee deliberations, with the amount granted if the project has been selected, or a statement of reasons in case the project has been denied.
5. The decision of the Committee is final and irrevocable. The FPO is not obliged to give any further explanation on the results.
6. Up to two (2) projects will be selected per cycle.

INCENTIVE CALCULATION

1. Successful applicants can receive a fund up from USD 50,000 up to USD 150,000.
2. A fixed amount of Two Hundred (200) USD (approx. PHP 9 690) will be deducted from the last tranche of the applicant's fund to cover the administration processing cost of the FDCP.

PAYMENT

1. In the event of a legal dispute, arbitration procedure or court orders, the Committee reserves the right to withhold the approved fund payment, until the matter is settled, or the ACOF Committee decides, after assessment of the dispute, that it is satisfied to release the payment.

2. The fund can be nullified with immediate effect, and the Committee can ask for the fund reimbursement under the following conditions:

- The applicant is unable to produce any documents or details asked for in the final report.
- The applicant submitted false information and/or documents that were obtained by fraud, material inaccuracies or misrepresentation.
- The Final Verification doesn't comply fully with the Provisional Application with key details of the project changed significantly: creative or financial.
- The QPPE incurred in the Final Verification is more or less than 10% of the approved production costs indicated in the Provisional Application.
- The film caused a negative impact to the natural resources and environment.

3. The Committee reserves the right of reimbursement of the fund already paid (in partial or in full) in case the received DVD of the project is not suitable and not compliant with eligible content as provided in section V.2. The applicant shall incur the legal interest in the event of delay to reimburse the fund already paid (in partial or in full), otherwise it shall be liable for damages.

4. The approval of the Provisional Application and the Final Verification is mandatory for the final installment. In case the Committee denied the Final Verification, the approved fund from the Provisional Application will be nullified and the Committee can ask for the reimbursement of the first 50% down payment of the Provisional Application.

5. The Commission on Audit (COA) reserves the right to exclude any incorrect and ineligible receipts and ask for the corresponding refund.

6. The payment shall be made in two installments. The first 50% (fifty) of the fund will be paid within sixty (60) days after the Provisional Notification and signature of the ACOF Memorandum of Agreement, and the remaining 50% (fifty) will be paid within sixty (60) days after the Final Verification Notification. It will be transferred to the applicant's bank account.

7. The applicant must notify the FDCP if there are any changes in ownership of rights. The applicant shall own the rights over the project which shall not be assigned to anyone else. The fund can be nullified, and/or reimbursed in any case.

8. The applicant shall hold FDCP harmless and indemnify FDCP against any third party claim in connection with infringement of any intellectual property right, or any accident, injury, loss or damage caused by the performance of the agreement.

9. Should the applicant renege from its responsibilities as specified therein and/or the FDCP determine the applicant to be in violation of the terms of the Memorandum of Agreement, the FDCP reserves the right to prohibit the applicant, its principals, and any parent or subsidiary companies from applying or accessing further funding from FDCP for a period of two (2) consecutive years upon written notice.

QUALIFYING PHILIPPINE PRODUCTION EXPENDITURES

1. The expenses will include periods from development, pre-production, production to post-production of the film.
2. QPPE starts at the date the FPO confirms the receipt of the complete Provisional Application and ends at the date of reception of the complete Final Verification by the FPO.
3. Since FPO will hold an orientation for the applicant on qualified receipts and supporting documents (please see Provisional Application Process, No. 7), failure to submit proper receipts will be considered as an invalid QPPE. Official receipts and supporting documents can only be submitted once.
4. The applicant producer's fee must not exceed 10% of QPPE spent on the production.
5. All expenses (VAT and non VAT) are eligible production expense provided they are presented with valid and properly accomplished BIR registered official receipt/s.

NATIONAL REGISTRY AND SAFE FILMING PROGRAMS

Founded in 2017, the National Registry is a program under the Film Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP) aims to organize a veritable database of all active film, television, and press workers, audiovisual companies, organizations, and film festivals all over the country, and open avenues for opportunities and activities that will promote the growth and development of the local audio-visual industry and promote its participation in both domestic and world markets.

NR also seeks to consolidate efforts as an empowered community of stakeholders so that film and audiovisual workers' voices may be heard and real action may be realized through the development of legislation and policy, education, social welfare, training, protection of intellectual property (IP), and freedom of expression, with active participation from all the sectors and stakeholders in the audiovisual industry.
